

New Bands Featured at Disneyland

New bands, dancing floors, and hours were announced this week by "Disneyland After Dark." A total of seven dancing areas are open nightly at the world famous amusement park. In addition to the Plaza Gardens, the Golden Horse shoe, the Space Bar, and the Mark Twain Riverboat, bands are now playing Friday and Saturday nights on the Mall in Tomorrowland, at Pirate's Cove and on the Delta. Highlight entertainment in "Disneyland After Dark" is the Royal Tahitian Show on the new Tahitian Terrace, special singing groups, and the Sky Fireworks show with Tinkerbelle. New park hours are 9 a.m. to midnight Monday through Thursday and 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Friday and Saturday. Sunday hours are 9 a.m. to 10 p.m.

Ner Tamid Religious Class Set

Registrations are now being accepted for enrollment in the Religious School of Congregation Ner Tamid of South Bay. Classes will commence on Sunday, Sept. 9. A complete program of religious education for children from kindergarten through confirmation class is offered and includes Hebrew, Bible, history, customs and ceremonies, current events, arts and crafts, song and dance, and dramatics and religious services. A staff of professional teachers, under the direction of the congregation's rabbi, using approved pedagogical methods, will administer the new educational program. Classes will be held at Silver Spur School. There will be no tuition charge to members of Congregation Ner Tamid. Adult study groups will also be conducted beginning in October. For registration or further information, contact Dr. Richard Gold, chairman of the congregation's education committee.

New Awards for Work With Mentally Ill Announced

Stanley LeBon, president of the Garden Valley Assn. for Mentally Retarded Children, has announced that a search is under way in the area for persons eligible for awards in the field of mental retardation. Nominations for the awards, to be given by the Joseph P. Kennedy Jr. Foundation, will close Aug. 1. AWARDS WILL be made in three fields. Scientific awards are to be made to persons investigating behavioral and biological effects. Groups or individuals contributing to care, rehabilitation, or educational program are eligible for service awards, while leadership awards will be given for activities in the community in behalf of the mentally retarded. The international awards were initiated by the Kennedy Foundation to recognize the achievements of persons working in the field of mental retardation and to assist outstanding current projects.

FURTHER information may be obtained from the Garden Valley Assn. for Mentally Retarded Children, 1119 W. Redondo Beach Blvd., or by calling Davis 4-3822.

Interest on Vets Loans To Decline

Notice of an interest rate cut on Cal-Vet loans will be mailed Aug. 1 after all state procedures are completed. Sara R. Bridges, Torrance Veterans service officer, explained yesterday that the California Veterans Board had recommended a reduction of one quarter of one per cent in Cal-Vet loan rates. The reduction must be approved by the Veterans Finance Committee. Approval by the committee would lower Cal-Vet interest rates to 3 3/4 per cent. Cuts would become effective 90 days after notices are mailed. This means the new rates would be in effect Nov. 1 if the current mailing date is adhered to. The new rates would not reduce monthly payments, but reduce the term of the contract.

Name New El Retiro Librarian

George Kurtz, chairman of the Torrance Library Commission, this week announced the appointment of a new librarian at the El Retiro branch, 126 Vista del Parque. The new librarian is Mrs. William M. Zinsley, who comes to Torrance from the UCLA library. Mrs. Zinsley took both her bachelor's and master's degrees in library science at UCLA and has worked in libraries in her home town of Arroyo Grande and in the San Luis Obispo County system. Mrs. Zinsley replaces Mrs. Lois Borman, who will move to the Isabel Henderson Branch in the Victor Park area. The new branch is slated to open later this month.

Lomita Church Sets Vacation Bible Program

Today at 7:30 p.m., the Vacation Bible School program will be presented at the Lomita Missionary Church, 2043 Lomita Blvd. Tomorrow at noon, there will be a picnic for the Bible school at Lomita Park. On Sunday, the Rev. Earl B. Leonard will speak on the subject, "Be of Good Cheer," in the 11 a.m. worship hour. The subject for the 7 p.m. service is "The Gadabouts." The Rev. Mr. Leonard has just accepted another two-year call for the local church.
